GUIDELINES FOR SUCCESS

Every class and professor is unique

Expectations will differ class-by-class in:

- Email
- Syllabus
- Grading
- Communication
- Office hours
- Classroom behavior guidelines
- Course management systems (D2L and Blackboard)

DO NOT use excuses for not following classroom policies based on hearsay; ALWAYS refer to your instructor’s expectations.
WHAT IS A SYLLABUS?

“...a statement of intent and serves as an implicit agreement between the instructor and students.”

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is for new Freshmen in the Colleges of Letters, Arts and Science (CLAS). It is designed to help you successfully integrate into the academic community of the University of Arizona. Course themes and activities focus on: motivation and goal-setting; developing relationships with faculty, advisors and other students; identifying and practicing critical academic skills, such as time management; and learning about and applying essential university policies and resources. Instruction is self-paced with specified assignments and deadlines.

MODE OF INSTRUCTION
This is an online course taught through D2L. Full access to the course requires a web browser and system settings compatible with D2L. To check your browser and settings compatibility with D2L, go to http://help.d2l.arizona.edu/node/21. For information about the tools you will use in D2L, go to D2L Help for Students.

OBJECTIVES
Students will identify, learn, and develop goals, skills, and resources needed for academic success at the University of Arizona.

CLASS FORMAT
This class is taught through D2L, with three in-person requirements:
• Students must attend an in-person course introductory meeting (UA Clicks, August 22).
• Students must attend the Meet Your Major Fair (October 8).
• Students must attend a registration workshop (Time and Date TBA).

Students with Disabilities: If you anticipate barriers related to the format or requirements of this course, please meet with me so that we can discuss ways to ensure your full participation in the course. If you determine that disability-related accommodations are necessary, please register with Disability Resources (621-3268; drc.arizona.edu) and notify me of your eligibility for reasonable accommodations. We can then plan how best to coordinate your accommodations.

REQUIRED BOOKS AND READINGS
• All other materials for this course will be available online.
SYLLABI SHOULD CONTAIN:

3. Grade & absence policies

4. Number of required examinations & papers
1. DRC
2. UA Religious Accommodation Policy
3. The UA Threatening Behavior by Students Policy

1. Cell Phone Policy
2. Excuse Policies
