YOUR SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

Class Types

- In-person.
- Online (iCourse) and Hybrid.
- 7 week/accelerated.

NOTE: 7 Week Courses that begin mid-semester will NOT appear on your class schedule until they begin.
COMMUNICATION

• Email is the official mode of communication at UA.
• Check UA email daily!
• Check junk mail, as well:
  – Add instructors, advisors, college listserv, etc. to address book.
  – You are responsible for emails that might go to your junk mail.
• Receive Wildcat Connections every Monday.
EMAIL ETIQUETTE

When communicating with instructors:

• Include your full name and SID.

• Be formal and courteous, e.g. “Dear Professor X,” and use proper capitalization.

• Respectful emails will help you gain the information you need and make connections with faculty!

• Keep in mind that email responses may take 24-48 hours, depending on the faculty member’s availability.
STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

• Maintains a safe learning environment for all students.
• Keeps our community safe.
• Violations include use of alcohol, drugs, false information, etc. and both individual students and student organizations are held accountable for violations of the code.
CLASS EXPECTATIONS

• Be respectful, conduct yourself professionally, and adhere to classroom policies.

• Students are expected to be regular and punctual in class attendance and to fully participate in their courses.

• Some expectations or policies may differ class-by-class:
  - Email
  - Syllabus
  - Grading
  - Communication
  - Office hours
  - Classroom behavior guidelines
  - Technology requirements, i.e., D2L, Clickers.
CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

• Principle that stands for honesty in all class work, and ethical conduct in all labs and clinical assignments

• All UA students are expected to follow this code in every aspect of their classes

• Violations of the Code include:
   – Plagiarism, self-plagiarism (i.e., use your own work for more than one course), cheating or helping someone else cheat, paying for assignments through online sites.

• Sanctions may include:
   – Short and long term consequences, including failing assignments or courses OR expulsion from UA.
CLASS SYLLABUS

A syllabus provides specific information about course policies, assignments, and expectations. Many faculty upload syllabi to D2L, and you should make sure you understand policies specific to each instructor.

- Instructor’s name, office hours, & contact information.
- Number and type of required assignments, i.e., quizzes, examinations, & papers.
- Grade policies.
- Attendance policies.
- University policies, such as disability accommodations, student code of academic integrity, technology use, etc.
Desire2Learn

- Desire2Learn (D2L)
  - Course management system where most faculty upload course syllabus, calendar, and other course materials.
  - Access content 24/7 from any computer or mobile device using your NET ID and password.
  - D2L Help is available online at http://www.help.d2l.arizona.edu/student/student-home

BEING YOUR OWN BEST ADVOCATE

• Don’t wait – ask for help when you need it!
• Where to go for academic support:
  – Your standing in a course or a class concern—reach out to your instructor, class TA, or preceptor. Visiting office hours can be incredibly helpful.
  – Your academic progress, degree requirements, and other concerns about academic standing—reach out to your academic advisor.

How to make an appointment with your advisor: Wise Advising

– Your need for tutoring—reach out to the THINKTANK at 520.626.0530.

– Your need to register a learning challenge—reach out to the Disability Resource Center at 520.621.3268.
BIGGER. BETTER. BASH

Sunday, August 20, 7:30 pm at the McKale Center

All new students are invited to Bigger. Better. Bash! Learn what it means to "Bear Down" from UA experts including Wilbur, Wilma and the Wildcat Baseball team. Attendees will receive their official Bear Down shirts. The event will be indoors.
