YOUR SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

Class Types

- In-person.
- Online (iCourse) and Hybrid.
- 7 week/accelerated.

NOTE: 7 Week Courses that begin mid-semester will NOT appear on your class schedule until they begin.
COMMUNICATION

• Email is the official mode of communication at UA.
• Check email daily!
• Check junk mail, as well:
  – Add instructors, advisors, college listserv, etc. to address book.
  – You are responsible for emails that might go to your junk mail.
• Receive Wildcat Connections every Monday.
EMAIL ETIQUETTE

When communicating with instructors:

• Include your full name and SID.

• Be formal and courteous, e.g. “Dear Professor X,” and use proper capitalization.

• Respectful emails will help you gain the information you need and make connections with faculty!

• Keep in mind that email responses may take 24-48 hours, depending on the faculty member’s availability.
BEING YOUR OWN BEST ADVOCATE

• Don’t wait – ask for help when you need it!
• Where to go for academic support:
  – Your standing in a course or a class concern—reach out to your instructor, class TA, or preceptor. Visiting office hours can be incredibly helpful.
  – Your academic progress, degree requirements, and other concerns about academic standing—reach out to your academic advisor.

  How to make an appointment with your advisor: Wise Advising
  – Your need for tutoring—reach out to the THINKTANK at 520.626.0530.
  – Your need to register a learning challenge—reach out to the Disability Resource Center at 520.621.3268.
BEING YOUR OWN BEST ADVOCATE

• Where to go for health and wellness support:
  – Your physical, psychological, or preventative health--reach out to Campus Health Services, after hours number is 520.570.7898.
  – Uncertain of where to go for help--email SOS@email.arizona.edu (Support. Opportunity. Success.) and they will help identify appropriate resources to address your need.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS
CLASS EXPECTATIONS

• Be respectful, conduct yourself professionally, and adhere to classroom policies.

• Students are expected to be regular and punctual in class attendance and to fully participate in their courses.

• Some expectations or policies may differ class-by-class:
  - Email
  - Syllabus
  - Grading
  - Communication
  - Office hours
  - Classroom behavior guidelines
  - Technology requirements, i.e., D2L, Clickers.
CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

• Principle that stands for honesty in all class work, and ethical conduct in relation to all in-class and out-of-class assignments.

• All UA students are expected to follow this code in every aspect of their classes.

• Violations of the Code include:
  – Plagiarism, self-plagiarism (i.e., use your own work for more than one course), cheating or helping someone else cheat, paying for assignments through online sites.

• Sanctions of the Code include:
  – Short and long term consequences, including failing assignments or courses or being suspended or expelled from UA.
CLASS SYLLABUS

A syllabus provides specific information about course policies, assignments, and expectations. Many faculty upload syllabi to D2L, and you should make sure you understand policies specific to each instructor.

- Instructor’s name, office hours, & contact information.
- Number and type of required assignments, i.e., quizzes, examinations, & papers.
- Grade policies.
- Attendance policies.
- University policies, such as disability accommodations, student code of academic integrity, technology use, etc.
Desire2Learn

- Desire2Learn (D2L)
  - Course management system where most faculty upload course syllabus, calendar, and other course materials.
  - Access content 24/7 from any computer or mobile device using your NET ID and password.
  - D2L Help is available online at http://www.help.d2l.arizona.edu/student/student-home
TECH TO ENHANCE LEARNING

• Clickers are handheld devices that allow instructors to poll students during a class session. They are often used in larger classes to check student learning.

• Office of Student Computing Resources (OSCR)
  – Multiple computer lab locations around campus.
  – Gear-to-Go for students to check out equipment (cameras, digital recorders, etc.) for academic projects.
  – Free Software Licenses (for a full listing go to http://softwarelicense.arizona.edu/students).

• UA BookStores
  • Free versions of Microsoft Office for students.
ONLINE SECURITY

• NetID+
  – All students are required to register with NetID+, which requires a double authentication method for logging in.

• Changing Passwords
  – https://netid.arizona.edu/chgid_pw.php
  – If you forget your password, you can use your CatCard to retrieve it.

• Using UA WiFi
  – Secure network - UAWiFi
  – Unsecure – UAGuest (Not recommended).

• Phishing
  – Spam & pop-up message appear to get your personal/financial information.
